

PRAYER AND PRAISE LIST

Week July 21 – July 28, 2010

"He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the LORD, "He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.""

- Psalm 91:1-2

SPIRITUAL GROWTH OF OUR CHURCH:

Involvement in Bible study, ministries, evangelizing, daily prayer, and reading of the Scriptures.

Gospel opportunities—pray for prepared hearts; freedom/boldness to share the Gospel.

Missionaries of the week: Bill & Yee Fun O and Caring for Miami.

Lord, protect our missionaries and their families as they serve and travel in Your name; open up eyes, ears, minds and hearts to Jesus whenever and wherever your gospel is shared.

NEW PRAYER REQUESTS:

Prayer for the families on the Gulf Coast:

- Give comfort to the families of those killed in the initial oil rig blast
- Grant success to the efforts to stem the flow of escaping oil
- Intervene to mitigate further damage and strengthen the hands of clean up crews
- Sustain those whose livelihood is directly impacted by this tragedy
- Preserve the health of citizens along the coastal regions
- Comfort the minds of all citizens, reminding us that He is a strong refuge in times of trouble
- Guide the counsels of our civil leaders and provide them with wisdom and divinely inspired solutions to the many complex problems associated with this disaster
- Pray that God will prevent future recurrences and prevent hurricanes in the affected areas

Edith S: Requests prayer for her cousin Alex P in North Carolina who is battling lung cancer. Please pray for his mother María as she struggles with her own health concerns and Alex's as well. Also, the S's and 4 other family members will be driving up to Canada. Pray for travel mercies and for a safe trip. Praise the Lord, Eddy's great aunt just celebrated her 96th birthday!

CONTINUE TO PRAY:

For the persecuted church in Afghanistan as the government launches a campaign to publicize names of former Muslims who have converted to Christianity.

Haiti earthquake: Pray for all those involved in the recovery effort, mission's organizations, and Christian workers. Also, for safety and effective witness.
